“Globally, Healthcare and HealthTech have been amongst the top 5 sectors to scale successfully to unicorn status. Lately many healthcare unicorns are born out of India, which is very encouraging for the Startup sector. This conclave will be both interesting and educative with regards to how the Healthcare Industry can catapult forward.” said Amit Mookim, President, TiE Mumbai.

“India's healthcare sector is poised for accelerated growth. To understand the opportunities in Healthcare, IMPACT 2021 is getting the best of the minds together on a single platform making it an event you cannot miss.” said Sudarshan Jain, Secretary General, Indian Pharmaceutical Alliance and anchor IIMA Healthcare ASIG.

Healthcare companies globally have cumulatively raised over USD 10 Bn over the last decade. They represent a vast variety of companies – from regenerative medicine, drug development, online physician service, appointment booking, health insurance, wellness apps, amongst others. Healthcare superstars have emerged from pretty much across the globe such as the US, China, UK, Germany, Israel, France and South Korea.

Simultaneously, the start-up landscape in India has matured significantly as well. Several Indian start-ups across sectors have managed to scale successfully, with 11 start-ups joining the vaulted Unicorn club in 2020 alone. Indian healthcare start-ups have started to see success. 2021 has been a great year for Indian Healthtech, with Pharmeasy -becoming India's first Healthtech unicorn, and Krsnaa Diagnostics - a teleradiology player, getting a successful IPO.

IIMPACT Health 2021 takes a holistic 360 degree view of the Healthcare sector and the start-up ecosystem in India. By marrying perspectives from successful Indian entrepreneurs, Silicon Valley UNICORNS, Investors from India, Europe and US & Healthcare thought leaders, It is an event, anybody interested in the Healthcare start-up ecosystem cannot afford to miss.

About IIM Ahmedabad Healthcare Alumni Special Interest Group (IIMA Healthcare ASIG)

IIM Ahmedabad is one of India's premier educational institutions. Established in 1961, IIMA has produced global leaders in academia, industry, government and the arts.

The Alumni Special Interest Groups at IIMA are platforms that bring together alumni, faculty and students and leverage the collective intellectual resources engaged in specific areas such as healthcare, education, technology, analytics, public policy, entrepreneurial ecosystem etc to bear on the most challenging issues of our times. Faculty and alumni are already making stellar contributions but the ASIG platform allows them to collaborate with each other much more intimately and to engage with industry and practitioners in a more multifaceted manner.

The Healthcare ASIG consists of some industry stalwarts who are shaping healthcare in India today.
